

News

15.02.2024

New Premises in France and the UK

AZ Armaturen France now has its own building. The move was necessary because Benjamin Selosse's team has grown to include Alexandre Sliwa and Yannick Belin and is also handling more orders. The AZ Service Centre UK, headed by Tim Clare and his wife Marie,

Read More

22.01.2024

Commitment is honored: AZ Armaturen celebrates long-standing employees

At the AZ Armaturen New Year's party at the Technikmuseum in St. Georgen (Museum of Technology in St. Georgen), the successful 2023 financial year was bid a festive farewell and the new year 2024 was welcomed. CEO Jörg Wisser expressly thanked the employees for their hard work. As Jörg

Read More

6.04.2023

New International Field Sales Managers

AZ Armaturen is constantly growing and changing; our representation to customers is mainly managed by our sales representatives in the field. For improved international cooperation, we introduce the new faces of the AZ Group here. Antonio Beltrán Regional Sales Manager, responsible for the West/Ruhr region (in

Read More

18.01.2023

New Year's celebration with honours for long service to the company

At the traditional company New Year's celebration at the beginning of January in the Technology Museum in St. Georgen, CEO Jörg Wisser expressly thanked the employees for their commitment. 44 long-serving employees with 10 to 40 years of service were honoured for their achievements - a total of 600

Read More

17.01.2023

Sustainable Energy Supply at AZ Armaturen

AZ Armaturen headquarters and parent production plant has achieved a high degree of energy independence and sustainable electricity generation. The installed photovoltaic system on the rooftops of the headquarters' buildings has a capacity of 770 kW (peak), while power usage is approx. 500 kW (including production floor). As a

Read More

Previous234Next